Emerging into Light – Brand new! Coming out of lockdown safely

How are you feeling about coming out of lockdown? We know that some people can't wait whilst others are feeling more anxious.

We'd like to introduce some gentle ideas for being out of doors and possibly re-connecting with your neighbours.

"DID YOU KNOW? STROLLS" AND THE GOLDEN HOUR - This is about taking a walk down your street in the hour before sunset. That's when the light is at its best so you might want to take your camera.

For instance, DID YOU KNOW that from the top of Sweetbrier Lane you can see the outline of Woodbury Hillfort on the distant horizon towards the SW?

Check out the webpage for more Heavitree street DID YOU KNOW ideas to focus your eye, mind and camera -

#ConnectMe – Free resources for all the family

There's a full set of FREE local history, place-based resources available now at the Interwoven Productions CIC website -

<http://www.interwovenproductions.com/connectme.html>

- 1) Ages 7-12 - Local History Detectives
- 2) Ages 13-Adult - Seeing Differently
- 3) Celebrate your Street Together - a short course with written units and supporting video.

Each resource shows you how to access wonderful old maps and other documents online to uncover the hidden histories of your own home.

Each has own associated facebook group where you can share your findings and compare notes.

"I Tell Ee Wot!" – Devonian Voice project

We're thrilled that our little group of Devonians is growing. They meet every two weeks (some gaps over the May bank holidays) and talk about what it means to be a Devonian today. Particularly about how poorly our accent is represented in the media and in the corridors of power.

They're making plans to record some spoken word to highlight just how beautiful our rich, rolling local accent is and were thrilled to host Jim Causley, local Folk Musician, at their last meeting to brainstorm some ideas.

If you have a Debmshire accent and are proud of it then why not join us!
